Summer Reading Club Grand Finale Concert starring Lucas Miller: The Singing Zoologist Thursday, July 28 at 3 pm for all ages

Lucas Miller's Singing Zoologist concert is a dazzling, multi-media blend of music and science. Giggle, sing, and move, as you learn about wetlands, clownfish, sharks, plankton and more. Lucas has reached millions through his school programs and through his YouTube channel, "Science Up with the Singing Zoologist." His recordings have won many awards and he was named an "American Masterpiece" artist by the National Endowment for the Arts, but it's really the notes from generations of fans that are his highest honor. Please join us for this special family event to wrap up "Oceans of Possibilities" summer reading club.

Thanks to the Friends of the Library for sponsoring Summer Reading Club performers, decorations, and prizes!

Cool School with Ms. Maria the Mermaid Friday, June 24 at 11 am for younger children

Fun is as bottomless as the sea. That's the way Ms. Maria "seas" it. Children can explore the depths of ocean fun as Ms. Maria invites them to sing, dance, enjoy puppetry, and learn some math too!

The Ocean Adventure

Ocean explorers, Wayne and Karen Brown, bring their world-wide ocean explorations to life with their high-energy, fast-paced, multi-media presentations that combine actual specimens, biological models, life-sized (or larger-than-life) inflatable animals, unique props, costumes, creative dramatics, storytelling techniques, high-tech SCUBA diving equipment, audience participation, and breathtaking underwater photography. They will be presenting two programs:

The Mexico Great White Shark Expedition Tuesday, June 28 at 10:30 am for elementary school ages AND

The Belize Whale Shark Expedition Friday, July 1 at 3 pm for elementary school ages

Pirates: History vs. Hollywood Friday, July 22 at 2 pm for upper elementary school ages and older

How much do you know about pirates? How much of it have you learned from television and the movies? Did pirates bury their treasure? Did they make people walk the plank? Were parrots their preferred pets? These common myths about pirates and many others will be discussed by Captain Zephaniah W. Nash, an expert pirate if ever there was one.
